

Newsela for Michigan

Engaging content for every student

As Michigan schools prepare for the next school year, Newsela provides standards-aligned, engaging content across subject areas. Focused on essential literacy skill development, core content, and social-emotional learning, Newsela partners with districts to accelerate learning, providing student and teacher resource continuity across subject areas and grades.

WHY CHOOSE NEWSELA?

Standards-aligned materials for skill development

- Standards-based content collections in Newsela ELA, Newsela Social Studies, and Newsela Science help teachers review specific skills that need extra practice
- Integration with NWEA MAP Growth automatically sets students' reading levels
- Built-in formative assessments help teachers get real-time insights into students' needs

Culturally-responsive content with embedded lessons

- Course area collections in Newsela Social Studies and Newsela Science make standards-based instruction actionable, engaging and culturally relevant
- Collections like Novel Studies and Fiction/Non-Fiction Paired Texts in Newsela ELA add context and relevance to literacy instruction
- Newsela's Anti-Bias, Anti-Racist Framework consists of 5 criteria (identity, diversity, justice, action, and rigor) used to evaluate the instructional content we provide across subjects.

Support for social-emotional learning

- The Newsela SEL Collection is organized by five CASEL SEL competencies - self-awareness, self-management, social awareness, relationship building and responsible decision making
- Instructional supports embedded in Newsela ELA and Newsela Social Studies help teachers weave SEL into content-area instruction
- Anti-bias, anti-racism resources and lessons in The Newsela SEL Collection for every grade band foster more inclusive, identity-affirming classrooms

Flexible curriculum connections

- Newsela Curriculum Complements support core content with relevant and fresh content
- Content goes across subject areas, aligning to the scope and sequence of popular curricular materials
- Newsela content can be delivered through streamlined LMS integration
